ada collection

BY MÓNICA BRAGA DOS SANTOS

Designed by Mónica Braga dos Santos, this high end furniture collection is inspired by the mid-century modern design, where functionality meets elegant curved lines. These smooth lines are enhanced with layers of volume that invite the touch and offer extra comfort.
ADA is a feminine given name that carries the conotations of “nobility” and “adornment”, a perfect fit for this luxurious collection.
The ADA collection is made in ash wood, upholstered in cottton velvet and finished in brown pewter. This harmony achieved with the materials choice makes it a must have armchair in any mid-century modern ambiance.

alma collection

BY ANA COELHO

ALMA is a contemporary organic coffee table that embodies the journey that is the search for a soulmate.
The design is composed by two pieces that formed a platonic relationship between them and can't live apart from each other. The two pieces merged together harmoniously, creating a unique and enticing form.

carson collection

BY AITOR GARCIA VICUÑA

The CARSON model is an amazing screen that goes way beyond then just dividing rooms. It's a stunning piece of decorative art that will elevate your space to the next level! Its elegant lines and sophisticated finish blend harmoniously into any space, whether classic or contemporary – it's the perfect addition to any home! Its surfaces often feature intricate details, such as geometric cut-outs or organic patterns, which catch the light and create interesting shadows, adding depth and something ethereal to the room. In addition to its practical function, the CARSON serves as a visual focal point that transforms and enriches the atmosphere, making it an ideal choice for those looking to combine functionality and aesthetics in a single design object. This amazing piece was designed by Aitor Garcia de Vicuña specially for your space.

cintura collection

BY SARA ELIZAGARATE

CINTURA seating collection is an ode to elegance and sophistication inspired by the exquisite fashion of the 19th century, where dresses were meticulously crafted to highlight the grace and shape of the waist. This furniture line captures the essence of the gathers that adorned dresses of the time, a meticulous technique that highlighted the natural curve of the waist and it can be seen in impressionist paintings that immortalized the fashion of the Belle Époque. They blend the classic with the modern in a unique and captivating way, resulting on a design that promises comfortable seating for hours. The emphasis on details is what makes the CINTURA collection unique. Each piece is meticulously crafted to capture the essence of the 19th century, resulting on not only functional but also timeless artistic expressions.
A balance between subtle gathers, smooth curves and high quality materials.

clyde armchair

BY AITOR GARCIA VICUÑA

CLYDE is a light and luxurious seating design, a Scottish name with Nordic lines that comes well-organized in a beautiful piece of furniture, with an aesthetic form to improve your interior design project.
Inspired by the River Clyde that flows through Glasgow, the back design has clean lines and a wooden structure, where the backrest is crossed and the curvy arms are attached to the legs through a finger joint.
CLYDE armchair is handcrafted in ash wood and can be customized according to the customers needs.

duchess cage lounge chair

BY ANDRÉ TEOMAN

DUCHESS cage lounge chair by André Teoman for SENTTA is a reinterpretation of the iconic mid-centuruy modern cocoon chair. This new version has a detailed and complex wood work on its raw back that contrasts with a soft and confortable seat. Geometry was the motto when conceiving DUCHESS cage lounge chair.

edge lounge chair

BY MAURO LOURENÇO

Inspired by the origami shapes, EDGE lounge chair is a geometric design piece with an imposing figure due to the strong use of wood, especially on the back.
This aspect can be softened by the fabric chosen to upholster the piece.
EDGE was especially projected considering the minimalist and industrial home decoration styles, though it can be easily adapted to other interior decorations.

essex collection

BY JAVIER GOMEZ

“I wanted to create a sleek luxurious collection with an artistic appeal, inspired by the architecture of New York City’s buildings. A collection designed to fit in the most demanding ambiances, regardless of the focus being residential, hospitality, corporate...” Javier Gomez

The ESSEX collection has a cosmopolitan vibe inherited from the designer’s perspective about NYC that was translated through the materials choice. The entire collection is handcrafted in ash wood, finished in brown pewter and upholstered in cotton velvet.
